Online Safety

The internet is a fantastic place that opens up the world to us all. Safe and positive use of the internet is often on my mind! National Online Safety (NOS) provide great guides for parents that are supportive in keeping your child as safe as possible. They offer general advice, but also offer guides for specific games and apps.

We are aware some of our children are playing Fortnite - I urge you to read the NOS guide for parents: <https://nationalonlinesafety.com/fortnite-battle-royale-parents-guide/>
