World Book Day

We will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 2nd March and would like to invite children to come to school dressed as book characters. There is no pressure to do this, some children don't enjoy dressing up and would prefer to come to school in their uniform which is fine.

There will be lots of exciting activities during the day including Blind Date with a Book, a book day parade and class teacher reading swap.

It was a pleasure to see so many of our children attending school in their beavers, cubs, brownies, scouts or guides uniforms this week (we even had a squirrel!). Thank you to Lyn Barber, Tracey Warwick-Compton and Melonie Hurst who joined us in our assembly to talk about all the exciting activities the children can enjoy if they enrol in one of these groups.

Lots of children seemed very keen to join. Here are links on which you can register your child for some trial sessions.
